

The Harvest Fields

Summer 2013

Encountering God

The highlight of my time here in Benin has been what I will call the "Encounter Weekend" which I experienced with my staff. The "Encounter Weekend" is one step in a church discipleship program called G-12 (Government of Twelve) developed by Pastor Cesar Castellanos in Bogota Columbia. This vision and method aims at character growth, not church growth. I have decided to adopt it in both Benin and Haiti. From November to February, I did the beginning stages in Haiti, and from March to June here in Benin. During this time, issues like, unforgiveness, offenses, soul ties, bondages and deliverance etc. are dealt with. Both encounters were life changing experiences for my staff and me. Thank you Holy Spirit.

Precious Partners, Greetings from Benin and Haiti, the harvest fields of Compassion of Christ. God has been doing a new thing with, in and through us for which I am grateful. I am also grateful to each of you who continue to stand with this ministry in proclaiming the gospel and making disciples through the means of education.

Playing a New Song

Compassion of Christ school in Agondon Benin has a school song!!! When I arrived back to Benin, the village children greeted me with a song one of the teachers wrote entitled "Compassion of Christ" which they and the teachers sang to me.

It nearly brought tears to my eyes. The words captured the heart of this ministry to glorify God and reach out to the oppressed. Within the next month we will have it on the website for you to go and listen to.

A Witnessing We Go...

This year in Benin, for the 4th, 5th and 6th graders, we instituted learning the Four Spiritual Laws/Roman's Road as part of our Bible curriculum in the school. They also since January have been doing a practicum using their new found knowledge, going out witnessing during the hour designated for their Bible class. It has only happened 3 times so far, yet over 20 souls have come to the Lord, Praise God!

Haitian News

On the Haitian front, one of the fruit of the encounter was a laborer for the field. Welcome Susie Laquey who assisted in doing the encounter and as a result of the change in many of the staff has decided to come on board as a full time missionary with Compassion of Christ. She has been doing discipleship with the 5th and 6th graders along with Jacques, another worker of CCWM Haiti. She is also ministering to the women in the community.

The one in 100 Blessing For Compassion in Haiti

Graduation 2010

You've heard of the 1 out of 10 lepers that came back to say thank you to Jesus. Well, meet Larose Lovensky, my 1 out of over 100 Compassion graduates that has come back to support the new church and mission. I'm told that he is one of the faithful few that are attending our "new beginning" church in Haiti. He was at one of the church services where I preached before I returned to Benin. I am thankful for the one, and know that God has great things in store for his life.
